The following are two beautiful articles written by Adrienne Selbst and provide a bittersweet review of our past Year.

Recap of 2006-2007

This has been a most joyous year for Temple Beth Ami! Why? The reason is that Rabbi Arthur Abrams and Cantor Pat Bruner have given a “new life,” along with new and old members, to making our temple so outstanding. Rabbi Art is so positive, so warm, and so informative that services have become truly meaningful and significant. Every one seems so pleased that Rabbi Art is our spiritual leader, and his wife Claire adds to the enjoyment of having him as our rabbi. Cantor Pat brings her devotion to helping us all learn more about our prayers, as well as surprising us with beautiful chants and new melodies during services; her husband Bob delighted us all with his violin playing of Kol Nidre. We feel blessed to have Rabbi Arthur and Claire Abrams and Cantor Pat and Bob Bruner as part of our temple family.

At this time Cantor Pat, we would like to give you this gift of our appreciation for your wonderful contributions to Temple Beth Ami. You have become an integral part of our lives, and we appreciate all that you do for us. Thanks so much for the commitment and energy that you have shown to our temple, and we wish you the very best with your surgery.

Kol Nidre was very special this year because of the beautiful violin solo performed by Bob Bruner. Bob, this gift is a small measure of our appreciation for your contribution.

It is not easy to be an administrator in any field, but Bobbie Lazarus has shown that she has the aplomb and dignity to “get the job done.” Bobbie, we admire how you are able to juggle so many jobs and do them all so well. You are fun and great as our administrator; we appreciate all of your hard work and dedication to our temple. Many thanks for giving your “all” and performing an outstanding job. This gift is just a small measure of our appreciation for your noteworthy contributions to our temple.

Where would be without Brian Woloshin? I don't want to even think about that as your contributions are invaluable. We know that you are in Flagstaff this evening at a graduation, but your gift is on the way. Thanks Brian for everything—you are a special guy.

Even though we are a small temple, the number of volunteers is large, as our members know the true meaning of Tzedakah. No contribution is too great or too small; we thank everyone for helping and your efforts make our temple vibrant and alive.

The following is a list of volunteers and their contributions: The Steering Committee-Don Alpert, Morrie Chernis, Arlene Freedberg, Steve Hertzfeld, Sara House, Jack Israel, Bobbie Lazarus, Doris Mannis, Arnie Schwartz, Adrienne and Mel Selbst, and Brian Woloshin; Toby Geller, our Yahrzeit Coordinator; Doris Mannis, our kitchen maven and Oneg Chairman; Susan and Bernie Pollack, our High Holiday Committee; SallieTerman, our Sunshine Chair; Judy and Jim Wilson, our Greeter Committee Chairs; Arlene Freedberg, Marilyn Israel, Beverly Miller, and Molly Spector, our Callers; Don Alpert, Bob Bruner, Earl Geller, Steve Hertzfeld, Mel Selbst, Arnie Schwartz, the Witten Family, and Brian Woloshin, our Holiday Ushers; Linda and Jerry Mittleman, our Israel Film Festival Coordinators; Arlene Freedberg, our Torah Study Coordinator; Morrie Chernis, Jack Israel, Sara House, Mort Miller, and Brian Woloshin, our Membership Committee; Steve Hertzfeld, our Alyiot Chair; Arlene Freedberg, Dinah Schwarz, and Adrienne Selbst, Contributors to the Newsletter; Dinah Schwarz, Movie Chair and Events Coordinator; Brian Woloshin, Web-Site Coordinator---fantastic site; Frani Wolfe, for creatively changing the pot-luck arrangements; The Witten Family for helping Brian; and Blossom Osofsky, our Recording Secretary. Special thanks are in order to Goldie Cohen, Elyssa Schneider, and Molly Spector for their outstanding help at services. Kudos to our special members for officiating at services when the Rabbi was not with us; these special people are Cantor Pat Bruner, Ruth Cohen--your brisket was “the best;” Goldie Cohen, Steve Hertzfeld, Jerry Mittleman, and Brian Woloshin. The Torah Study acknowledges Lila Markowitz, a learned and knowledgeable woman, who has served as our leader for many of the Torah Sessions. Wow! What a group! Thanks so much to all of you –you are terrific and Beth Ami needs and applauds all of you for your many accomplishments.

Kudos to Vickie and Steve Hoffman for the delicious break-fast following Yom Kippur: in addition, Vickie and Steve have most generously donated a wonderful gift to the temple to keep the break-fast going for a few more years. Many thanks to the two of you for your generosity; it is well appreciated. Thanks to Bunnie and Bob Leiserowitz for their most generous gift to the Ruth Schwartz Fund; Beth Ami appreciates your generosity.

Remembering Ruth Grosse

Ruth Grosse was a very special lady: she loved life, she loved people, and she loved her family and friends. Ruth was a joy to be around and her 97 years on earth were filled with happiness and special memories. Rabbi Fred Gross, her son, said at her funeral that his mother’s philosophy was that one would be dead a long time so the time to live and enjoy life was right now. Ruth lived in the moment and made the most of her time on earth; she will be missed. Our prayers and love are with Pat, her husband of 75 years.

Summer is almost here. Until we meet again in August, may each of you enjoy good health, terrific times with family and friends, and safe and fun travels.

Adrienne

was none other than Belli Martin Seligson his cell phone for Robin to say hello, let us know they are all doing well and to pass on her regards to all her old Beth Ami friends."

Beth Ami Temple mourns the loss of one of our founding members, Ruth Grosse, who passed away in April.
